"COMING."

"What I say unto you, I say unto all, Watch,"
(MARK xxiii. 37.)

It may be in the evening :

When the work of day is done,
And you've time to sit in the twilight
And watch the setting sun,
While the long bright day dies slowly
Over the sea,—

And the hour grows quiet and holy

With thoughts of ME—

When you hear the village children
Passing along the street,
Among the thronging footsteps
May come the sound of MY feet.

Therefore I tell you "Watch!"

Let the door be on the latch

In your home—

For it may be through the gloaming

I WILL COME!

It may be in the midnight :

When 'tis heavy on the land,
And the black waves lying dumbly
Along the sand ;

When the moonless night draws close,
And the lights are out in the house :

When the fire burns low and red,
And the watch is ticking loudly
Beside the bed ;—

Tho' you sleep tired on your couch,
Still your heart must wake and watch
In the dark room,—

For it may be that at midnight
I WILL COME !

It may be at the cockcrow ?
When the night is dying slowly
 In the sky ;
And the sea looks calm and holy,
Waiting for the dawn of the golden sun
 Which draweth nigh ;
When the mists are on the valleys
 Shading the rivers chill,
And my morning-star is fading, fading
 Over the hill ;—
 Behold I say unto you "Watch !"
 Let the door be on the latch
 In your home,—
 In the chill before the dawning
 I MAY COME !

I may be in the morning :
 When the sun is bright and strong,
And the due is glist'ning sharply
 Over the little lawn ;

When the waves are laughing loudly
Along the shore :
And the little birds are singing sweetly
About the door :
With the long day's work before you
You are up with the sun,
And the neighbours come in to talk a little
Of all that must be done ;
But remember that I MAY BE the next
To come in at the door,
To call you from your busy work
For evermore !
As you work your heart must watch,
For the door is on the latch
In your room—
And it may be in the morning
I WILL COME !
So I am watching quietly
Every day,

Whenever the sun shines brightly

I rise and say,

'Surely it is the shining of HIS FACE'—

And look unto the gates of His High Place

Beyond the sea ;

For I know He is coming shortly.

To summon me—

And when the shadow falls across the window

Of the room,

Where I am working my appointed task,

I lift my head to watch the door and ask

If He is come———

And the spirit answers softly,

In my room—

Only a few more shadows

And HE WILL COME!
